THE PASTOR'S POINT

"Central Station for Accessing God"

When we are young in our walk with the Lord, we may not always understand the best approaches to a lot of things. Most of us don't know the best access routes to the throne of God. The critical thing is to understand that our prayer life is a central aspect in everything moving forward.

Jesus is our greatest example of the need for a vibrant and consistent prayer life. If Jesus had to pray, and He did, then we also must cultivate our relationship with the Lord our God through prayer.

As a young believer, I knew prayer was important because I repeatedly watched the examples of those whom I considered mature Christians. Mother Nellie Marshall led the morning prayer at my former church every weekday at 9 am. She was consistent. She was persistent. She prioritized prayer as both essential and critical to her spiritual walk with God.

But no one stayed at the church all day, every day. Church was the place where we heard the Word of God and saw, on repeated display, how God moves. We were often reminded who He is and what He would do for us. If possible, many of us would have bottled up the experiences and exposure to an eternal God who visited His people in worship.

When I went off to college, it was important to find and learn how to access the same God that I had learned about on Sundays and at other church services. It was always easy to learn more about Him and seek His face on a regular basis.

One of the scriptures that stuck with me was Matthew 6:6 that says, " But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

It took a while for me to understand the depth of the central place to access God. Prayer was and is the key. It's the central place to access Him and understand everything that involves our personal lives and how to pray for others. Prayer is our personal, consistent, quiet time before God.
