THE PASTOR'S POINT

"The Summer Life Series"

We are all familiar with God being the supplier of all our needs, according to Philippians 4:19. He is most concerned with ALL of our needs. Some of that means getting the right information to make quality decisions in life, especially when the rain falls on the just or unjust, and the sun shines on both.

Here are many of the topics that we are looking at for summer seminars at the church:

- ✓ An attorney will be coming to talk about the importance of WILLS, POWER OF ATTORNEY, AND ESTATE PLANNING
- ✓ A certified financial planner will be coming to talk about HOW TO GET YOUR FINANCES in order and save and invest for the future
- ✓ Multi-million-dollar house seller with more than 30 years of experience, Quandra will talk about HOW TO BUY A HOUSE
- ✓ An experienced HR professional with many years of corporate hiring background will talk about HOW TO PREPARE YOUR RESUME.'
- ✓ Because your HEALTH is critical and must be taken care of, we are looking into having health professional come in to share the most important health warning signs and check-up times
- ✓ LIFE INSURANCE is a necessity in life so that all things are covered, so we are planning to have a licensed professional come in and talk
- ✓ THE EDUCATION OF OUR KIDS is another area that you will hear a conversation about. Thoughts are being pulled together for meetings with parents sooner rather than later to make kids successful in life.

Other areas are under consideration also.

We are talking about having these sessions on Saturday mornings during the summer months (or fitting in as many as possible). If you are interested in helping in any way or interested in signing up, this will be an OUTREACH of the Bibleway Christian Fellowship Church in-person session, starting in late June 2022. You must sign up to RSVP and will not see this on Zoom. Contact Pastor Mitch immediately because each session will be 25 seats available.

CAN WE HIDE FROM GOD?

By Pastor Q

Undoubtedly, the answer to the above question is absolutely not. As the saying goes, we can run from God but can't hide. Proverbs 15:3 says that the eyes of the Lord are in every place beholding the good and the evil. The Holy Spirit and the angels of God are always present, especially with those who belong to Him. Psalm 139:7-10 says, "wither shall I go from Your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from Your presence? If I ascend into heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, You (your judgments) are there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there shall Thy hand lead me, and Your right hand shall hold me." After considering some of the things we think, say, and do, it's a terrifying thought that God is ever-present. Perhaps our wanting to hide from Him like Adam and Eve did, is partially due to the fact that we may think we have sinned or displeased God in some way. But whatever the reason that we want to hide, it still seems that in His presence is the best place to be. So, why would we want to flee from His presence when the Scriptures tell us that in His presence is the fullness of joy and at His right hand are pleasures forevermore. Knowing that God sees us should bring fear and reverence and should also bring peace and comfort as well. The comfort is in knowing that the Good Shepherd watches over us, protects, provides for us, and leads us as His sheep. Even when trying to hide, it's a blessing to know our Lord and Savior, Jesus, is and always will be with us, even unto the end of the world (Matthew 28:20). And that's a promise!

A Prayer for Fathers

Dear Lord, Bless every father and every grandfather with the best of your spiritual blessings today. Let him know he is not alone in the tasks you have given him to provide for and support those under his care. Show him how much you delight in his work and affirm the value of whatever You have given him to do—both as a father or grandfather and as a child of Yours. Confirm his worth daily, so he has no reason to doubt whether he is loved in the eyes of his Heavenly Father. Create in him a deep sense of trust in You and let him know that every unselfish act of love and encouragement he has offered has been a gift that You receive gladly.

When challenging times push him beyond his limits, assure him that You can take Him further into the realm of possible impossibility. Reward him for his faithfulness past, present, and future, ensuring him that true success and satisfaction don't lie in his accomplishments or accolades. Still, the steadfast, Christ-like character You are forming in him.

Demonstrate to him Your amazing grace and forgiveness as he seeks to love and know you with all his heart, soul, and mind. Help him see his children or grandchildren through Your eyes, realizing that in Your hands is the safest place they can ever be.

Teach him how to meet the needs of his child's life that are within his ability to do so but help Him to trust You for the rest.

Complete any healing of past hurts or regrets that may interfere with parenting or grandparenting his children. Strengthen in him a sense of joy, humility, and playfulness that draw his family close.

Today, on special days, and for all the days of his life, fill him with the best of Your blessings so that one day he will stand before you and hear Your ultimate words of praise, "Well done, my son, well done!" In Jesus' Name, Amen.
